Rashmi Dubé is a partner in the Construction & Litigation group of Gunnercooke LLP in London and is a multi-award-winning business leader, litigation lawyer and board advisor on director duties and governance. She has entrepreneurial practice experience, as well as knowledge and experience from start-ups to developing a business and turnaround to working with the U.K. Cabinet Office on the SME Advisory Panel. Ms. Dubé is the Kingdom Policy and Governance spokesperson for ambassadors for the Institute of Director (IOD)s. She has an understanding of the business impact of ESG and the risks involved, whether financial, reputational or cultural. Ms. Dubé is a European board member of the Turnaround Management Association (TMA) and chair of Communications for TMA Europe, and she is an author and Business columnist for The Yorkshire Post. She received her LL.B. with honors from the University of Derby and her L.P.C. from Guildford College of Law.

Dr. Dorothee Prostedter is a partner with Noerr in Munich, Germany, and specializes in restructurings and complex transactions in the context of insolvency. She advises German and international clients on national and cross-border restructurings, M&A transactions and multifaceted insolvency law topics. Dr. Prostedter has been listed by The Legal 500 in the area of restructuring and insolvency for several years, and in The Legal 500 Germany (2020) and Juve (2021). She also is recommended as a leading expert in restructuring and insolvency in Handelsblatt/The Best Lawyers in Germany for 2018-21 and for restructuring in Die Wirtschaftswoche for 2021-22. Dr. Prostedter received her law degree from the University of Passau.

Francisco Marzá Tornel is a senior associate in the restructuring practice group of Cuatrecasas in London. He joined the firm in September 2011 and previously worked in its Madrid and Barcelona offices. Mr. Tornel has experience in national and international debt-restructuring transactions, direct lending and distressed situations representing investment funds, financial institutions and debtors. In recent years, he has participated in a variety of transactions advising strategic investors in their direct-lending investments in Spain, as well as creditors across the credit spectrum in their refinancing strategies. Mr. Tornel received his LL.B. in 2010 from the Universitat Pompeu Fabra, his LL.M. in 2011 from the University of Aberdeen and his postgraduate degree in insolvency law in 2017 from the Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia.

Pierre-Gilles Wogue is a founding partner of ADVANT Altana in Paris and has an extensive national and international practice spanning two decades in both transactional and litigation matters, including restructurings and special situations. He provides a wide range of advice and assistance to main stakeholders and/or distressed transnational companies, from mid- to large-size companies, conglomerates and financial institutions, to help them navigate crises and/or special situations. This includes inter-alia distressed M&A situations, financial and/or operational restructuring, crisis-management assistance, pre-litigation, and litigation related to crisis and pre-insolvency and insolvency. Mr. Wogue is frequently requested to participate in the process of various reforms and regulations at national and European levels. He previously was a partner at Rambaud Martel (now Orrick Rambaud Martel), then joined Salans (now Dentons) in 2006, then co-founded ADVANT Altana in 2009.

Mr Wogue is a graduate of Sciences-Po Paris, holds a Masters degree in Business Law from Assas, and received his post-graduate diploma in Private Law from the Sorbonne.
